

Flanged Bearing Unit for cultivators in sowing systems

Developed from an existing design to meet a customer's specific requirement for higher load capability, this Flanged Bearing Unit has a special seal and an outboard/outer facing flinger, for use in dusty and soily conditions, enabling different crops to be cultivated and sown in a single operation.

Product Features

- 30% increase in load rating
- Improved sealing due to: - Tight-fitting triple-lip seal - Additional flinger

Benefits

- Easy to assemble. Bearing supplied complete with housing: - Flanged ball bearing unit - Flanged bearing tailored to customer's requirement - Lifelong lubrication

Condition Description

- Contamination
- High Load
- Lubrication

Industries

- Agriculture

